
Kromann Reumert appoints three new partners

12.19.2019

Kromann Reumert welcomes Maria Holst Levin, Oliver Machholdt and Kumaran Thavarajah into the partnership with effect from 1 January 2020.

The three new partners will help Kromann Reumert set the standard in the years to come.

"They all possess significant professional expertise and extensive knowledge and understanding of business processes. The promotion of the three new partners will strengthen even more our focus on M&A, Life Science, outbound financing and other international transactions. Together with the rest of the firm, Maria Holst Levin, Oliver Machholdt and Kumaran Thavarajah will contribute to developing Kromann Reumert. We will continue focusing on developing our core business to ensure that we can always meet the high standards rightly expected by our clients and others", says managing partner Anders Stubbe Arndal.

About the three partners

Maria Holst Levin is 36 years and joined Kromann Reumert in 2007. Maria is primarily engaged in M&A, advising Danish and international operators on complex business acquisitions, particularly within the energy industry. In 2019 she was named by Berlingske Business as one of Denmark's top 100 young business talents.

Oliver Machholdt is 35 years and joined Kromann Reumert in 2008. Oliver is primarily engaged in Life Science, advising Danish and international clients on contracts, regulatory issues and transactions concerning pharmaceuticals, medical equipment, biotech, etc.

Kumaran Thavarajah is 34 years and joined Kromann Reumert in 2015. Kumaran is primarily engaged in outbound financing and M&A. Kumaran has considerable international experience, particularly in energy transactions where he has advised on the financing of renewable energy transactions globally. Kumaran is a solicitor of the Senior Courts of England & Wales, an Attorney and Counselor-at-Law of the State of New York, and a Barrister and Solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand.
