
Kromann Reumert in partnership with Thinkers50

3.2.2017

Since 2001, Thinkers50 has selected the 50 most influential management thinkers in the world - “the Oscars of management thinking”. This year, Thinkers50 adds the conference "Thinkers50 European Business Forum".

The European conference, which will be held in Odense, brings together the world’s greatest management thinkers and business people for the “Davos of Business Thinking”. Outside Europe, annual meetings are held in New York, Abu Dhabi and Qingdao in China.

"Thinkers50 European Business Forum" takes place on 9 and 10 may 2017. Some of the world’s most influential management thinkers participate in the conference and among the speakers are Michael Porter, Peter Fisk and Marshall Goldsmith.

Kromann Reumert participates as a conference partner. Arne Møllin Ottosen, Managing Partner at Kromann Reumert says: "Kromann Reumert's most important task is to be a trusted advisor for our clients, and one of our fundamental values is commercial insight. By constantly expanding our knowledge, we seek to improve our understanding of the client's business and ensure that our services add value. We give priority to knowledge sharing and invest heavily in staff development and in our unique Learning Center where we share knowledge with clients and other stakeholders. Thinkers50 and European Business Forum focus on knowledge sharing, so it is natural for us to seek to get a high-profile event like this to Denmark."

In Kromann Reumert's Learning Center, it will be possible to read Thinkers50's "Letters to the CEOs" put into a broader perspective by Kromann Reumert partners.

Among the other Thinkers50 European Business Forum partners are Nordea and Deloitte. Read more about Thinkers50 European Business Forum here.
