Martin Thøming specialises in business transfers (M&A) and in general commercial and company law.

As adviser to a wide range of Danish and foreign business clients in connection with national and cross-border business transfers and investments, Martin has considerable experience as process and project manager.

He has previously worked with real estate and is therefore also an experienced adviser in relation to sale and purchase of business premises, construction contracts, including in particular expert opinions, and commercial and residential tenancies.

Martin is well-known for his pragmatic, dedicated and direct approach when cooperating with clients and negotiating with the other party.

High-profile cases

Over the years, Martin has been involved in numerous transactions, often involving foreign buyers or sellers. Most recently, Martin has advised clients in the following cases:

- the owners sale of 80% of the shares in the owner-managed Golf Experten A/S to the Swedish investment company Röko AB
- the owners sale of all the shares in the owner-managed Lampemesteren A/S to Luqom GmbH
