

Bart Creve

Partner (Copenhagen)

Bart A. Creve's advisory and litigation practice focuses on all aspects of competition and State aid law, as well as general EU law matters.

Bart represents Danish and foreign clients in a wide array of economic sectors, including energy, telecoms, aviation, shipping, pharmaceuticals, motion pictures, gambling, consumer electronics and foodstuffs. His particular talent for mastering the details of a case and grasping cross-jurisdictional issues means he has provided valuable assistance to clients in proceedings before the European Commission and the European Courts as well as national authorities and/or courts in Denmark, Belgium, The Netherlands, Switzerland, Korea and the US.

Dir. +45 38 77 45 47
Mob. +45 61 61 30 27
bcr@kromannreumert.com

Practice areas

Competition Law

EU Law

Foreign Direct Investments

State Aid Law

Industries

Healthcare

Bart has coordinated several multi-jurisdictional merger proceedings and is currently involved in infringement cases such as the "Air Cargo" and "Power Cables" cartel cases, and two landmark "pay-for-delay" cases. Bart has also developed extensive experience in distribution, pricing and cooperation strategies at both national and international level, and he is active as either plaintiff or defence counsel in a number of State aid proceedings.

After training as a Belgian attorney-at-law with Linklaters in Brussels, Bart worked in the ECN/Cartel division of the European Commission, Directorate-General for Competition.

Ratings

Based on client testimonials, acknowledged rating organizations have most recently rated Bart in:

- Chambers Europe, Band 2, 2024
- Legal 500, 2024

Background

Career

- Partner, Kromann Reumert, 2015-

Education

- Admitted to practice law in Denmark, 2014
- Attorney-at-law (New York Bar), 2013
- Advocaat (Brussels Bar), 2005
- Master of Laws (LL.M), University of Chicago, 2005
- Summer School, European University de Fiesole, 2004
- Studied a semester at New York University 2001
- Master of Laws (cand.jur.) from Katholieke Universiteit Leuven (Licentiaat Rechten), Belgien, 2001

Languages

- Dutch
- English
- The Scandinavian languages
- French

Activities

- Regular lecturer at universities and conferences
- Authored and co-authored several articles
- Member of American Bar Association Antitrust Section
- Member of Benelux Business Club
- Member of the Danish Association of Competition

Publications

- Contributor to Chambers Global Practice guide 'Merger Control 2016'